

Earthian Award 2011 Report

Kendriya Vidyalaya Vigyan Vihar won the National Earthian Award 2011 in the school category “The Sustainable Programme for School and Colleges”. KV Vigyan Vihar stood in 5 selected topmost schools in this category for the award from all over India, other winner institutes were IIT Khargpur, IIM Bangalore, Rishi Valley school etc. The award was presented by Shri Azim Premji, Chairman, Wipro Limited on 21st Jan 2012 in JN Tata Auditorium, Indian Institute of Science Malleswaram, Bangalore.

The award comprises of cash prize of Rs. 2.00 lakhs for the Vidyalaya as project money, Citation, Certificates for all the team members, gift vouchers for the books along with to and fro airfare and local hospitality for the project team.

School Eco-Club Coordinator Mrs. Meenu Wadhwa, Kendriya Vidyalaya Vigyan Vihar, Delhi presented a Paper on “Conceptualization and Implementation of Zero Solid Waste Management Strategy” along with a group of five students Roli, Chetali, Harshada, Sonali and Parul under the expert guidance of Principal Shri M.L. Aggrawal. School is running several such projects under in guidance of Principal Sir like Paper Recycling, Simple Composting, Vermicomposting, Rolly Polly Composting, Herbal Garden Project and Say no to Plastic. Reuse, Recycle and Reduce is the Mantra preached in the school with judiciously using the natural resources like water, air, land energy and waste has helped Vidyalaya to achieve the sustainable development in the field of environment.

Legend for the Photograph : Mrs. Meenu Wadhwa, Kendriya Vidyalaya, Vigyan Vihar along with the project team Roli and Chetali receiving the Earthian Award 2011 from Chairman of WIPRO Shri Azim Premji at Indian institute of science Bangalore

The Sustainability Program
for schools and colleges

WINNER

High School Category

Kendriya Vidyalaya, Vigyan Vihar, Delhi

for their team entry, selected among the top 5 papers.

