JINGLES

A jingle is a short song or tune used in advertising and for other commercial uses. Jingles are a form of sound branding. A jingle contains one or more hooks and meaning that explicitly promote the product or service being advertised, usually through the use of one or more advertising slogans. Ad buyers use jingles in radio and television commercials; they can also be used in non-advertising contexts to establish or maintain a brand image. Many jingles are also created using snippets of popular songs, in which lyrics are modified to appropriately advertise the product or service

Well-known as "Land of Festivals", the state of Gujarat celebrates a large number of festivals every year. The celebrations are complemented with music performances and traditional dances based on their rich traditions and culture. Various classical songs, drama and dance forms are practised in Gujarat which is actually popular all over the country. Most of the dance forms are very old. Some of the eminent folk dances from Gujarat are: Dandi-ya Raas, Garba, Tippani and Padhar.

The word Garba comes from the Sanskrit word for womb and so implies gestation or pregnancy — life. The dancers honour Durga, the feminine form of divinity.
